

CRITICAL EXPOSURE YOUTH INTERNSHIP

PHOTOGRAPHY + SOCIAL JUSTICE AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM

Are you interested in photography and making social change?

Learn about Critical Exposure's Youth Internship program at a pizza info session or apply today!

WHEN

4:30-6:30pm on
Wednesday, Feb. 18th

WHERE

Thurgood Marshall Center | 1816 12th St NW
Directions on back.

WHAT

Critical Exposure's Youth Internship is a chance for students to learn how to use photography and advocacy skills to improve their schools and communities.

WHY

Students will have the opportunity to receive 40 community service hours. Successful completion of this program leads to the opportunity to join our paid Fellowship Program in September.

CLASS TIMES

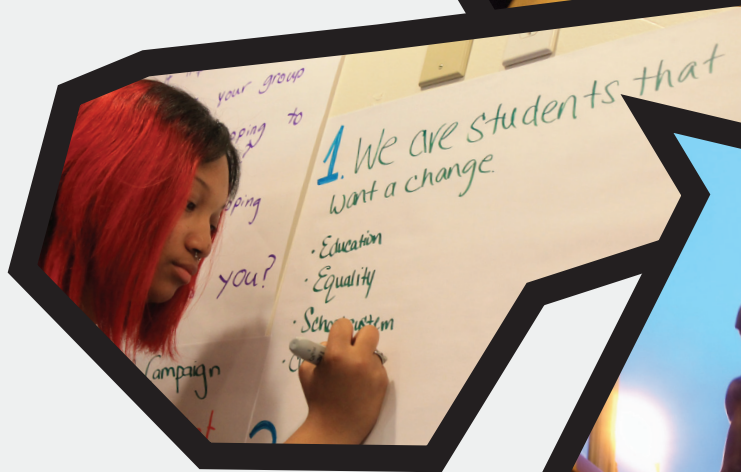

4:30-6:30 on Mondays & Wednesdays from March 2nd-May 6th

TO RSVP, CONTACT PIERRE: pierre@criticalexposure.org or 202.745.3745 x20

OPEN HOUSE:
4:30-6:30PM
FEBRUARY 18TH

APPLICATION DUE: February 20th
www.criticalexposure.org/apply-youth-internship

TURN OVER FOR DIRECTIONS TO THE INFO SESSION.

HOW TO GET TO CRITICAL EXPOSURE

Critical Exposure is located in the Thurgood Marshall Center, right by the U. St. Metro (green and yellow lines).

From the metro: Exit at 13th and U St. Then turn right and walk away from the Starbucks towards 12th St. Turn right on 12th St. and walk 1.5 blocks. We're in the big building on the right-hand side. Buzz at the front door to be let in, then sign in and the front desk and say you're here for Critical Exposure.

From the 90, 92, 93 and 96 bus: Exit at 13th and U St. Then turn right and walk away from the Starbucks towards 12th St. Turn right on 12th St. and walk 1.5 blocks. We're in the big building on the right-hand side. Buzz at the front door to be let in, then sign in and the front desk and say you're here for Critical Exposure.

From the 64 bus: Get off at 11th and S St. Walk down S St. towards Garrison Elementary School. Buzz at the front door to be let in, then sign in and the front desk and say you're here for Critical Exposure.

